

Opening a Local Food Delivery Company in Paris, France

Description of the Data

To solve this problem, the following data is required:

- The list of districts in Paris, to define the scope of the project.
- The latitude and longitude of each district required to plot the map and prepare to get the venue data using the Foursquare API calls.
- Venue data, particularly data related to restaurants and supermarkets. This data will be used to perform the clustering analysis.